

Passage: Isaiah 50-66

Date: 2.7.2020

Discovered:

- Lord to Israel: Why would I send you away? You have turned away from me.
- The Lord is your comforter. He brings joy, righteousness & strength - that same God created the world.
- I will take your suffering & give it to your tormentors.
- The Lord will redeem His people, but not with money, for God will go before you & will be your rear guard.
- My servant (Christ) who will be innocent, will be pierced for your ^(sin) transgressions & will make many righteous.
- My children, Israel, fear not, enlarge your tent, for I, your redeemer have compassion for you.
- My steadfast love will not depart from you, nor will my covenant of peace.
- Come to me & receive my gift of wine & milk (Salvation)
- My word is not empty, I accomplish what I say. (covenant)
- Those (even foreigners) who choose to keep His commandments & ways will receive a place in His house.
- There are those who watch over Israel that are blind. What good is a guard dog that does not bark?
- The righteous perish, but you don't care, you chase idols that cannot deliver you.
- I will comfort those who are contrite & have humble spirits but there is no peace for the wicked
- You fast to be seen, not to honor the Lord. You fast, but do not care for others, the poor.
- Sin separates us from God.
- There is no man, by my own arm (Christ) to bring salvation. He will come out of Zion for those who turn from sin & will defeat his enemies.
- Covenant: Lord: My spirit will not ever leave you.
- Nations will see Jerusalem's light, it will be restored to its glory, wealth, will be majestic forever.
- The Spirit of the Lord has come to proclaim freedom & the Lord's favor.
- The Lord clothes me in salvation & covers me in righteousness.
- Zion will be restored, given a new name. My delight is in Her & Her people will be called holy.
- Wrath of God will come on Day of Judgement.
- He (Christ) took on my afflictions, sin, out of love for me & redeemed me.
- Lord, return to us, we have strayed from You, forgive us.
- Those who forsake me, worship idols, talk to the dead, eat pigs will be destined for the sword.
- I will create a new heaven & a new earth, one with no weeping or hurt.
- Lord: I choose those who are humble & contrite.
- I will grant Jerusalem peace.
- Israel will be forever all will worship the Lord & those who have rebelled will be punished forever.

Help me to remember:

that Your Word is not empty & that You have promised us that Your Spirit will never leave.

Lord, I ask that my heart of service & worship of You, come from an honest place, not one where I want to be seen.

Heavenly Father, I am thankful for... that while I may not understand most/
some of what Isaiah says, that is okay,
because I understand you love me.
